

Introducing TerraBurger: All-Natural & Organic Fast Food

Proving that fast food doesn't have to be junk food, TerraBurger opened on February 20 at 2522 Guadalupe (next door to Hole in the Wall). The burger joint features all-natural or organic meats and ingredients in all menu items. But creators Don Craven Jr. and George Walas stress they're not fancifying fast food, just taking the unwholesome nastiness out of it. The menu is anchored by 100% USDA certified organic beef for the three varieties of burgers ($6), all of which are available as veggie burgers or with all-natural chicken, or even as a turkey burger. Of course, fries are a staple too, with options of hand-cut organic fries or sweet potato fries. Robust dinner salads ($7) are also available. If the long lines at P. Terry's on Barton Springs are any indication, Austin loves organic, eco-conscious fast food. So expect this addition to The Drag to be a huge hit. TerraBurger is open 7am-11pm Monday through Saturday, and 8am-10pm on Sundays. Breakfast is served until 10:30am on weekdays, until noon on weekends.

Mmmm...tasty burger
